

The Boys Are Back

(To the tune of the Chicago Bears Super Bowl Shuffle -

 Chicago Bears Shufflin' Crew - The Super Bowl Shuffle 1985 )

We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

The Invaders of Normandy
That's what we are
We started here
Then went afar

College is Where we all went
Dollars and brain cells
They're all spent

Good times, bad times
We had our share
We could tell stories
But do we dare

We have returned
And that's a fact
Believe it or not
The boys are back!

(Wein)

My name is Wein
And I dig this scene
Spent seven years
In Tennessee

Went to school
Here and there
Trying to become
A Bio-med Engineer

Well sure enough
I did graduate
Took time off
To just celebrate

So now that's done
And I've got a tip
I've just become
An Akron Zip!

(All)

We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

(Jack)

My name is Jack
And glad to be back
I've been away
So cut me some slack

Went to the city
Of wind and pizza
Brought back a girl
Her name is Lisa

Computers and programming
Are my game
Hackin' in Chicago
Just ain't the same

So now that's done
And I've pulled up stakes
Moved on back
To my city on the lake!

(All)

We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

(Dan)

This is Dan
And I had the plan
Quit my job
And went on the lamb

Around the world
In 10 months or so
Finished up
In TOH-KEE-OH

Before all that
I went through hell
Free riding through
The school of Cornell

So now that's done
And you know I say
I'm back at home
And here to stay!

(All)

We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

(AI)

My name is Al
And I think I shall Tell you all
Why I'm your pal

I left this town
A few years back
Went to school
I went with Jack

Took five years
Just to get through
Then I found work
And stayed another two

So now that's done
And I left Cincinnati
Watching the Bengals
Just drove me batty!

(All)

We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

Don't go away
'Cause we're not through
There's still a few boys
Who need talking to

It's Sam and Dave
And we can see
You'll be back
Immediately

D.C. and Detroit
May have you now
But you can return
'Cause we've shown you how

So when that's done
We'll bang the gong
Here's us hoping
It won't be long!

(All)
We are the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

We're Sam and Dave
And we heard the call
Gave it some thought
No need to stall

We joined the boys
And we are back
Took us longer
Now that's a fact

Back with the others
They're like our brothers
Doing fine
Now we're part of this rhyme!

We joined the boys
And we are back
That Cleveland spirit
You just can't crack

(Verse added December 2025. Thanks Sam!)
